

MAN|MADE

ENGAGING YOUNG MEN TO BE PART OF THE SOLUTION

Man|Made is a four-week psychoeducational group for postsecondary men that provides facilitated conversation and peer modelling around healthy masculinity and sexuality. Man|Made is designed for both male peer leaders seeking to contribute to creating a world without violence, and for young men who have committed sexual violence (and perhaps have been mandated to attend by their post-secondary institution). The program views these young men as more than perpetrators but as agents of social change.
